

Magistrate, and Warden of the Hudson County Jail. A widow, a son, and two daughters survive him.

JESSLYN IRENE FORSYTH ABEEL, wife of Henry F. Abeel of the iron and steel firm of Abeel Brothers, 190 South Street, died yesterday at her home at 148 West 131st Street. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Mrs. MARY COLE SENIOR, an active member in several fraternal societies in Brooklyn, died at her home, 968 Gates Avenue, on Friday after a long illness. She was Past Junior Associate of Hope Council, Daughters of Liberty, and Past Associate Councillor of the Mayflower Council, Daughters of America. Mrs. Senior was born in New York in 1849 and had lived in Brooklyn for the last forty years. She leaves a brother and three sisters.

JOHN J. ADELMAN, a real estate operator, died at his home at Bushwick Avenue and Suydan Street, Brooklyn, on Friday from pneumonia. He was the head of the Long Island Real Estate Company of Broadway. Mr. Adelman was 32 years old. He was a member of the Bushwick Club and Cassia Lodge, F. and A. M. He leaves a widow and a daughter. The funeral services will be held at his home today.

JOSEPH A. BIDDULPH, a member of the Masonic Order and the Odd Fellows, died at his home, 715 Manhattan Avenue, Williamsburg, on Friday night after a three years' illness. He was formerly an engineer in the employ of the Standard Oil Company. He was 58 years old. He leaves a widow, three sons, and a daughter. The funeral services will be held at his home to-morrow evening, and the burial will take place at Poughkeepsie on Tuesday.

Miss Martha Finley.

ELKTON, Md., Jan. 30.—After a long illness, Miss Martha Finley, the author, died to-day at her home, in Elkton. She was born in Chillicothe, Ohio, April 26, 1828. Among her best-known works were the "Elsie" books.

Obituary Notes.

CHARLES O. McCREEDY, ex-Secretary of the State Forest, Fish, and Game Commission, died at Ballston on Friday, aged 61 years. He was prominent in political affairs and served in various public offices.

ELIAS H. PETERS, Surrogate of Saratoga County for many years, died suddenly at his home in that place yesterday of cerebral hemorrhage. He was 68 years old.

Mrs. JOSEPHINE GILLET LORD of 58 Park Avenue, widow of Franklin Butler Lord and daughter of the late Joseph Gillet, died in Quebec on Friday morning, after an illness of several weeks of grip and pneumonia. Her sons, Franklin Butler Lord, Jr., Edward and George Lord, and Mrs. Franklin Lord, Jr., who had accompanied her to Quebec three weeks ago, were with her until the end. The body will reach this city to-day, and the funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at St. Thomas's Church.

Mrs. ELIZABETH S. DAVIS, widow of John P. Davis, who was for twenty-five years prominent in East Orange, died there yesterday after an illness of nine days from pneumonia. She was 84 years old and a native of Asbury Park. She was the daughter of the Rev. Jacob A. Castner of that place. Two sons and two daughters survive her.

CHARLES K. BIRDSALL, 71 years old, a former Boulevard Commissioner of Hudson County, died yesterday at his home, 107 Palisade Avenue, Jersey City. He had been ill for many months. He was one of the best known Democrats in Northern New Jersey. He was an Alderman, a Freeholder, a Police